

Seventh Annual Art in the Alley

Greensburg, KY
Saturday, May 21, 2011
9:00 am to 4:00 pm (CDT)

Well, as I write to you, we still have 3 inches of snow on the ground.... and I DO seem to remember delivering St. Valentines cookies in 6 inches of snow, one year in the past. But I am pretty sure that by Saturday, May 21st, there will be NO SNOW for Art in the Alley.

Perhaps all this snowy weather is allowing you to slow down and take some time to make new creations to sell at our art festival. I know that the Greensburg Art Council and the City of Greensburg are already making plans for being your hosts that day – and looking forward to it, too! We are so proud to welcome you as our guest to our little alley full of quality art booths and demonstrations in downtown Historic Greensburg. Each year we meet new artists, and welcome back artists that we claim as old friends. We are hoping you will join us as we celebrate our seventh year of art, music and fun in our alley!

- ❖ To be eligible to exhibit, all work must be original, creative, and made by the artist's hand. No kits may be used to construct your art, and no commercially made items may be sold. (Prints or lithographs of your originals are exceptions.)
- ❖ The Arts Council reserves the right to reject work if it does not meet the criteria and standards of Art in the Alley.
- ❖ Booth size is 10'x10' and located outdoors in the alley. The booth fee is $40.00 per space. However, The Early Bird Special is only $30.00 if your application is postmarked before April 15th.
- ❖ Some booths will be inside the "arts center-to-be" which will be out of sunlight and weather. Should there be bad weather, it is large enough for all to set up inside.... so the adage that "the event goes on rain or shine" is actually true for us.
- ❖ A limited number of outdoor electric outlets are available by reservation only for an additional $10.00 fee. If you do wish electricity, please return your application as soon as possible so that we can reserve your designated space.
